HERMES

Strengthening Digital Resource Sharing During COVID And Beyond

2023 / 01

Welcome to the latest updates from the Hermes team.

In the coming weeks you can for instance attend an international conference in the Netherlands, test your skills in a contest to design the new logo for the RSCVD community, apply for a mini-grant and take part in the training on 19 April.

So many activities, we are waiting for you!

18th-19th April: HERMES Final Conference @The Hague

Final Conference

RESOURCE SHARING:
A KEY PILLAR OF OPEN

18TH-19TH APRIL
@THE HAGUE

The conference takes place on 18 April 2023 [h.10-17,45] at the National Library of the Netherlands in The Hague, with training on 19 April [h.9,30-13].

Save the date for the final conference of the HERMES project on resource sharing, bringing together librarians, researchers, students and advocates for a knowledge commons in order to share tools, learn lessons, and identify future needs in the field of resource sharing.

Registration is now open! Read more about the registration, the call for posters and the grants for participation.

Do you participate to RSCVD Community? WE NEED YOU!

The growth of libraries today has resulted in the emergence of new voluntary collaboration initiatives worldwide, such as the RSCVD community.

We are collecting testimonials to share during the Final conference. See the ones we received up to now on the Hermes Youtube channel.

Tell us about your experience as RSCVD volunteer.

Discover the guidelines for the mini videos "RSCVD experience".
